OPIATE LITIGATION

This document relates to:
The County of Summit, Ohio, et al. v.
Purdue Pharma L.P., et al.
Case No. 18-op-45090

MDL No. 2804

Case No. 1:17-md-2804

Hon. Dan Aaron Polster

DEFENDANT RITE AID OF MARYLAND, INC.'S ANSWER

Defendant Rite Aid of Maryland, Inc. d/b/a Mid-Atlantic Customer Support Center (“Rite Aid”), by and through counsel, hereby answers Plaintiffs Summit County, Ohio et al.’s¹ (“Plaintiffs”) Corrected Second Amended Complaint in accordance with the numbered paragraphs thereof.

GENERAL DENIAL

Rite Aid denies all allegations contained in the table of contents, headings, titles, or footnotes of the Corrected Second Amended Complaint.

ANSWER TO THE SPECIFIC ALLEGATIONS CONTAINED IN COMPLAINT

1. Denied as stated. It is admitted only that Plaintiffs bring this action against the parties named in Paragraph No. 1.² Rite Aid denies all other allegations in Paragraph No. 1.

² Plaintiffs voluntarily dismissed Rite Aid Corporation as a defendant in this case on June 13, 2018 (Dkt. No. 625).

Insofar as the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 1 pertain to other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations and therefore denies them.

2. Denied as stated. Rite Aid admits only that there currently is a national opioid epidemic but denies any liability for that epidemic or for the alleged misuse, abuse or over-prescription of opioids. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 2 and therefore denies the allegations.

3. Rite Aid denies the allegations contained in Paragraph No. 3. To the extent paragraph 3 is directed to the conduct of other defendants Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 3 and therefore denies the allegations.

4. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 4 and therefore denies the allegations.

5. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 5 and therefore denies the allegations.

6. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 6 and therefore denies the allegations.

7. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 7 and therefore denies the allegations.

8. Rite Aid admits only that on October 27, 2017 the President declared the opioid epidemic a national emergency. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 8 and therefore denies the allegations.

9. The allegations of Paragraph No. 9 are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations. To the extent Paragraph No. 9 is directed to the conduct of other defendants Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 9 and therefore denies the allegations.

10. Rite Aid denies all allegations in Paragraph No. 10, including that it ever manufactured or marketed opioids or that its conduct contributed in any way to the opioid epidemic. To the extent Paragraph No. 10 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 10 and therefore denies the allegations.

11. Rite Aid denies all allegations in Paragraph No. 11, including that it ever manufactured or marketed opioids or that its conduct contributed in any way to the opioid epidemic. To the extent Paragraph No. 11 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 11 and therefore denies the allegations.

12. Rite Aid denies all allegations in Paragraph No. 12, including that it ever manufactured or marketed opioids or that its conduct contributed in any way to the opioid epidemic. To the extent Paragraph No. 12 is directed to conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 12 and therefore denies the allegations.

13. Rite Aid denies all allegations in Paragraph No. 13, including that it ever manufactured or marketed opioids or that its conduct contributed in any way to the opioid epidemic. To the extent Paragraph No. 13 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 13 and therefore denies the allegations.

14. Rite Aid denies all allegations in Paragraph No. 14, including that it ever manufactured or marketed opioids or that its conduct contributed in any way to the opioid epidemic. To the extent Paragraph No. 14 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 14 and therefore denies the allegations.

15. Rite Aid denies all allegations in Paragraph No. 15, including that it ever manufactured or marketed opioids or that its conduct contributed in any way to the opioid epidemic. To the extent Paragraph No. 15 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 15 and therefore denies the allegations.

16. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 16 and therefore denies the allegations.

17. Rite Aid denies the allegations in Paragraph No. 17, including that its conduct contributed in any way to the opioid epidemic. To the extent Paragraph No. 17 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 17 and therefore denies the allegations.

18. Denied as stated. Rite Aid admits only that there is currently a national opioid epidemic but denies any liability for that epidemic or for the alleged misuse, abuse or overprescription of opioids. Rite Aid denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 18. To the extent Paragraph No. 18 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 18 and therefore denies the allegations.

19. Rite Aid denies all allegations in Paragraph No. 19, including that it ever manufactured or marketed opioids or that its conduct contributed in any way to the opioid epidemic. To the extent Plaintiffs rely on the written statements of representatives of the CDC such statements are in writing and any interpretation or characterization thereof is denied. To the extent Paragraph No. 19 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 19 and therefore denies the allegations.

20. Rite Aid denies the allegations in Paragraph No. 20, including that it ever manufactured, promoted or marketed opioids and denies any liability for the opioids epidemic or for the alleged misuse, abuse or overprescription of opioids. To the extent Paragraph No. 20 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 20 and therefore denies the allegations.

21. The allegations of Paragraph No. 21 are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations. To the extent Paragraph No. 21 is directed to the conduct of other defendants Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 21 and therefore denies the allegations.

22. Rite Aid denies the allegations in Paragraph No. 22. To the extent Paragraph No. 22 is directed to the conduct of other defendants Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 22 and therefore denies the allegations.

23. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 23 and therefore denies the allegations.

24. Denied as stated. Rite Aid admits only that there is currently a national opioid epidemic and Plaintiffs bring this suit to address that epidemic but Rite Aid denies any liability for that epidemic or for the alleged misuse, abuse or overprescription of opioids. The remaining allegations of Paragraph No. 24 are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations. To the extent Paragraph No. 24 is directed to the conduct of other defendants Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 24 and therefore denies the allegations.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

25. The allegations of Paragraph No. 25 are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations.

26. The allegations of Paragraph No. 26 are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations.

27. The allegations of Paragraph No. 27 are conclusions of law to which no response is required and they are, therefore, denied. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations.

PARTIES

28. Denied as stated. Rite Aid admits only that the County of Summit is a county organized under the laws of the State of Ohio, is listed in the case caption and purports to bring the claims identified in the complaint. Rite Aid denies that the County of Summit, Ohio is a proper plaintiff in this action. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 28 and therefore denies the allegations.

52. The referenced entity was dismissed as a plaintiff from this action by court order on May 31, 2018. Because Paragraph No. 52 concerns an entity that is no longer a party, no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed to be required, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 52 and therefore denies the allegations.

53. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 53 and therefore denies the allegations.

54. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 54 and therefore denies the allegations.

55. Rite Aid denies that any entities other than the County of Summit and the City of Akron, and, for purposes of the statutory public nuisance claim, the State of Ohio by and through the chief legal officers of municipalities located in Ohio, as set forth more fully in that claim for relief, are Plaintiffs to this action. Paragraph No. 55 contains only a recitation of the shorthand terms that Plaintiffs define for their own use elsewhere in their Complaint to characterize and group together various plaintiffs. To the extent Paragraph No. 55 is deemed to contain any additional allegations that require a response, Rite Aid denies such allegations.

56. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 56 and therefore denies the allegations. Rite Aid denies that these parties are proper plaintiffs in this action.

57. Denied as stated. Rite Aid admits only that Summit County declared a state of emergency as a result of the opioid epidemic but denies any liability for that epidemic or for the alleged misuse, abuse or overprescription of opioids. Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 57 and therefore denies the allegations.

58. The allegations of Paragraph No. 58 are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations. To the extent Paragraph No. 58 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 58 and therefore denies the allegations.

59. The allegations of Paragraph No. 59 are conclusions of law to which no response is required and they are, therefore, denied. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations. To the extent Paragraph No. 59 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 59 and therefore denies the allegations.

60. Denied as stated. Rite Aid admits only that there is currently a national opioid epidemic but denies any liability for that epidemic or for the alleged misuse, abuse or overprescription of opioids. The remaining allegations of Paragraph No. 60 are conclusions of law to which no response is required and they are, therefore, denied. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations. To the extent Paragraph No. 60 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 60 and therefore denies the allegations.

61. Denied as stated. Rite Aid admits only that there is currently a national opioid epidemic but denies any liability for that epidemic or for the alleged misuse, abuse or overprescription of opioids. The remaining allegations of Paragraph No. 61 are conclusions of law to which no response is required and they are, therefore, denied. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations. To the extent Paragraph No. 61 is directed to the conduct of other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph No. 61 and therefore denies the allegations.

62. The allegations of Paragraph No. 62 are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Rite Aid denies the allegations.

63. Rite Aid denies all allegations in Paragraph No. 63 as it never manufactured nor marketed opioids. To the extent these allegations pertain to other defendants, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 63 and therefore denies the allegations.

64. The allegations of Paragraph No. 64 are directed to other defendants and, as such, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 64 and therefore denies the allegations. To the extent the allegations are directed to Rite Aid it denies the same.

65. The allegations of Paragraph No. 65 are directed to other defendants and, as such, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 65 and therefore denies the allegations.

66. The allegations of Paragraph No. 66 are directed to other defendants and, as such, Rite Aid lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph No. 66 and therefore denies the allegations.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

1137. Rite Aid denies that Plaintiffs are entitled to any relief set forth in its Complaint.

GENERAL DENIAL

Rite Aid denies all allegations not specifically admitted in this Answer.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

Rite Aid reserves the right to amend its Answer to the Complaint, and to raise additional defenses as may be discovered during the course of this litigation and its continuing factual investigation.

AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

FIRST DEFENSE

To the extent they are not otherwise incorporated herein, Defendant incorporates all the defenses and arguments raised in the motions to dismiss of the Manufacturer Defendants, Distributor Defendants, and Pharmacy Defendants in this case.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitation or repose.

THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, for lack of standing.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the voluntary payment doctrine.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs lack capacity to assert their claims, including claims indirectly maintained on behalf of their citizens and claims brought as parens patriae.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred because Plaintiffs are not the real party in interest.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of acquiescence, settlement, or release.

NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because they are not ripe or have become moot.

TENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by common law, statutory, and state constitutional constraints on the exercise of police powers by a municipality.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the political question and separation of powers doctrines and because their claims implicate issues of statewide importance that are reserved for state regulation.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of unclean hands and in pari delicto.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to exhaust administrative remedies.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of estoppel and waiver.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

Defendant is entitled to, and claims the benefit of, all defenses and presumptions set forth in or arising from any rule of law or statute of this State or any other state whose substantive law might control the action.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the learned intermediary doctrine.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs have failed to join all necessary parties, including without limitation health care providers, prescribers, patients, and other third parties whom Plaintiffs allege engaged in the unauthorized or illicit prescription, dispensing, diversion, or use of prescription opioid products.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims against Defendant do not arise out of the same transactions or occurrences as their claims against other defendants, as required for joinder of parties.

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that they relate to Defendant's alleged speech, petitioning, or associational activities protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or by the Constitution of the State of Ohio.

TWENTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the Due Process or Ex Post Facto clauses of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Ohio.

TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Defendant's rights under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution and Constitution of the State of Ohio are violated by any financial or other arrangement that might distort a government attorney's duty to pursue justice rather than his or her personal interests, financial or otherwise, in the context of a civil enforcement proceeding, including by Plaintiffs' use of a contingency fee contract with private counsel.

TWENTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because they violate the dormant Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution.

TWENTY-THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendant did not proximately cause the damages complained of, including because the acts of other persons (including individuals engaged in the illegal distribution or use of opioids without a proper prescription) intervened between Defendant's alleged acts and Plaintiffs' alleged harms and constitute superseding causes that would extinguish any liability; because any injuries or damages sustained by Plaintiffs were caused or contributed to by the negligence or actual conduct of Plaintiffs and other persons, firms, corporations, or entities over whom Defendant had no control or right of control and for whom it is not responsible; because any injuries or damages sustained by Plaintiffs were caused by unforeseeable and uncontrollable circumstances or other forces over which Defendant had no control and for which Defendant is not responsible, including pre-existing medical conditions; because any injuries or damages sustained by Plaintiffs were caused by misuse of products, failure to use products properly, or alteration of prescription medications by third parties over whom Defendants had no control and for whom Defendants are not responsible.

TWENTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the Complaint are barred, in whole or in part, by the Restatement (Second) of Torts § 402A, Comments j and k, and Restatement (Third) of Torts: Products Liability § 6.

TWENTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the derivative injury rule and the remoteness doctrine bar Plaintiffs from recovering payments that it allegedly made on behalf its residents to reimburse any expenses for health care, pharmaceutical care, and other public services.

TWENTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendant has valid defenses which bar recovery by those persons on whose behalf Plaintiffs purportedly seek recovery. Plaintiffs' claims are subject to all defenses that could be asserted if Plaintiffs' claims were properly made by individuals on whose behalf or for whose alleged damages Plaintiffs seek to recover.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs have failed to comply with the requirement that they identify each patient in whose claim(s) they have a subrogation interest and on whose behalf they have incurred costs.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs fail to plead that they reimbursed any prescriptions for any opioid distributed by Defendant that harmed patients and should not have been written and fail to plead that Defendant's allegedly improper conduct caused any health care provider to write any ineffective or harmful opioid prescriptions.

TWENTY-NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims seeking equitable relief are barred because Plaintiffs have an adequate remedy at law.

THIRTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the principle of comparative or contributory fault.

THIRTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the principles of assumption of the risk and informed consent.

THIRTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Defendant asserts its right to a proportionate reduction of any damages found against Defendant based on the negligence or other conduct of any settling tortfeasor, responsible third party, or Plaintiffs.

THIRTY-THIRD DEFENSE

A specific percentage of the tortious conduct that proximately caused the alleged injury or loss to person or property is attributable to (i) each Plaintiff, (ii) other parties from whom Plaintiffs seek recovery, and (iii) persons from whom Plaintiffs do not seek recovery in this action, including, but not limited to, prescribing practitioners; individuals and entities involved in unauthorized or illicit prescription, dispensing, diversion, or use of prescription opioids; individuals and entities involved in importation, distribution, sale, or use of illegal opioids; individuals involved in procuring diverted prescription opioids or illegal drugs; delivery services; and federal, state, and local government entities. Ohio Revised Code § 2307.23.

THIRTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

Any verdict or judgment that might be recovered by Plaintiffs must be reduced by those amounts that have already indemnified or with reasonable certainty will indemnify Plaintiffs in whole or in part for any past or future claimed economic loss from any collateral source or any other applicable law.

THIRTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

If Defendant is found liable for Plaintiffs' alleged injuries and losses, the facts will show that Defendant caused fifty percent or less of the conduct that proximately caused such injuries or loss and is liable only for its proportionate share of the damages that represent economic loss. See Ohio Revised Code §§ 2307.22-.23. Any recovery by Plaintiffs must be reduced pursuant to Ohio Rev. Code §§ 2315.32-35 and 2307.23 to account for the acts or omissions attributable to Plaintiffs.

THIRTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

The damages which Plaintiffs may be entitled to recover if liability is established are capped pursuant to Ohio Revised Code §§ 2315.18 and 2315.21.

THIRTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Any damages that Plaintiffs may recover against Defendant must be reduced to the extent that Plaintiffs are seeking damages for alleged injuries or expenses related to the same user(s) of the subject prescription medications, or damages recovered or recoverable by other actual or potential plaintiffs. Any damages that Plaintiffs may recover against Defendant must be reduced to the extent they unjustly enrich Plaintiffs.

THIRTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

To the extent that Plaintiffs are alleging fraud, fraudulent concealment, or similar conduct, Plaintiffs have failed to plead fraud with sufficient particularity.

THIRTY-NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the economic loss rule.

FORTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the free public services doctrine and by the municipal cost recovery doctrine.

FORTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by their failure to mitigate damages. Plaintiffs may have failed or refused to exercise reasonable care and diligence to avoid loss and minimize damages and, therefore, may not recover for losses that could have been prevented by reasonable efforts on its part, or by expenditures which might reasonably have been made.

FORTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims for public nuisance are barred, in whole or in part, because the alleged public nuisance would have impermissible extraterritorial reach and because the alleged conduct of Defendant is too remote from the alleged injury as a matter of law and due process.

FORTY-THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because federal agencies have exclusive or primary jurisdiction over the matters asserted in the Complaint.

FORTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are preempted by federal law, including (without limitation) the federal Controlled Substances Act and the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA); and conflict with the Drug Enforcement Administration's regulatory authority. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by conflict preemption as set forth in the United States Supreme Court's decisions in PLIVA, Inc. v. Mensing, 131 S. Ct. 2567 (2011), and Mutual Pharm. Co. v. Bartlett, 133 S. Ct. 2466 (2013). Plaintiffs' claims are preempted insofar as they conflict with Congress's purposes and objectives in enacting relevant federal legislation and authorizing regulations, including the Hatch-Waxman Amendments to the FDCA and implementing regulations. See Geier v. Am. Honda Co., 529 U.S. 861 (2000).

FORTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

The activities of Defendant alleged in the Complaint conformed with all state and federal statutes, regulations, and industry standards based on the state of knowledge at the relevant times alleged in the Complaint.

FORTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

To the extent Plaintiffs assert claims that depend solely on violations of federal law, such claims are barred and should be dismissed. See Buckman v. Plaintiffs' Legal Comm., 531 U.S. 341 (2001).

FORTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the deference that common law accords discretionary actions by the FDA under the FDCA and discretionary actions by the DEA under the Controlled Substances Act. Defendant passed all audits conducted by the DEA.

FORTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims for nuisance are barred, in whole or in part, because they lack the statutory authority to bring a nuisance claim under Ohio law or their own applicable county or municipal codes or regulations.

FORTY-NINTH DEFENSE

To the extent that Plaintiffs rely on letters or other informal guidance from the DEA to establish Defendant's regulatory duties, such informal guidance cannot enlarge Defendant's regulatory duties in the absence of compliance by DEA with the requirements by the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. § 551 et seq.

FIFTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' common law and statutory public nuisance claims are barred, in whole or in part, because of abrogation by the Ohio Products Liability Act.

FIFTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, reduced, or limited pursuant to the applicable Ohio statutory and common law regarding limitations of awards, caps on recovery, and setoffs.

FIFTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, reduced, and/or limited to the extent that Defendant is entitled to a credit or setoff for any and all sums Plaintiffs has received in the way of any and all settlements.

FIFTY-THIRD DEFENSE

Defendant's liability, if any, will not result from their conduct but is solely the result of an obligation imposed by law, and thus Defendant is entitled to complete indemnity, express or implied, by other parties.

FIFTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims for punitive or exemplary damages or other civil penalties are barred, in whole or in part, by the due process protections afforded by the United States Constitution, the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution, the Full Faith and Credit Clause of the United States Constitution, and applicable provisions of the Constitution of this State or that of any other state whose laws may apply. Any law, statute or other authority purporting to permit the recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties in this case is unconstitutional, facially and as applied, to the extent that, without limitation, it: (1) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards to guide and restrain the jury's discretion in determining whether to award punitive damages or civil penalties and/or the amount, if any; (2) is void for vagueness in that it fails to provide adequate advance notice as to what conduct will result in punitive damages or civil penalties; (3) unconstitutionally may permit recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties based on harms to third parties, out-of-state conduct, conduct that complied with applicable law, or conduct that was not directed, or did not proximately cause harm, to Plaintiffs; (4) unconstitutionally may permit recovery of punitive damages or civil penalties in an amount that is not both reasonable and proportionate to the amount of harm, if any, to Plaintiffs and to the amount of compensatory damages, if any; (5) unconstitutionally may permit jury consideration of net worth or other financial information relating to Defendants; (6) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards to be applied by the trial court in post-verdict review of any award of punitive damages or civil penalties; (7) lacks constitutionally sufficient standards for appellate review of any award of punitive damages or civil penalties; (8) would unconstitutionally impose a penalty, criminal in nature, without according to Defendants the same procedural protections that are accorded to criminal defendants under the constitutions of the United States, this State, and any other state whose laws may apply; and (9) otherwise fails to satisfy Supreme Court precedent, including, without limitation, Pacific Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Haslip, 499 U.S. 1 (1991); TXO Production Corp. v. Alliance Resources, Inc., 509 U.S. 443 (1993); BMW of N. Am. v. Gore, 517 U.S. 559 (1996); State Farm Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S. 408 (2003); and Philip Morris USA v. Williams, 549 U.S. 346 (2007).

FIFTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

To the extent that Plaintiffs seek punitive, exemplary, or aggravated damages, any such damages are barred because the product at issue, and its labeling, were subject to and received pre-market approval by the FDA under 52 Stat. 1040, 21 U.S.C. § 301.

FIFTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

Defendant adopts by reference any additional applicable defense pled by any other defendant not otherwise pled herein.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Rite Aid respectfully requests that the claims alleged in the Complaint be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice, and that Rite Aid be awarded its costs of defense, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

Dated: January 15, 2019

Respectfully submitted,
